

Duration: circa 2'15"

Dream (1983) is derived from the third movement of an earlier work by the composer for solo piano. It depicts the story of a young artist and his efforts to acquire a place in the pantheon of the arts. As the title indicates, the artist is seeing in his unconscious images and colors of no definite shape.

The music of Dinos Constantinides has been performed throughout the world. He is the recipient of many grants, commissions and awards, including first prize in the Brooklyn College International Chamber Opera Competition, the First Midwest Chamber Opera Conference, and the Delius Composition Contest. He also received the American New Music Consortium Distinguished Service Award, the Glen Award of l'Ensemble of New York, several Meet the Composer grants, numerous ASCAP Standard Awards, and he was honored with a Distinguished Teacher White House Commission on Presidential Scholars.
