INSTRUMENTATION

violin and piano

Accidentals are valid for the entire measure, in the indicated octave only.
Many additional accidentals have been added for clarity.

As the title indicates, Patterns (1989) is based upon contrasting musical ideas organized within a tight framework. A free slow section alternates with a fast rhythmic one leading to a frenzied ending. Patterns was commissioned by the Montgomery Museum of Fine Arts and the Montgomery Performing Arts Company for the opening of the 1989-90 Promenade Concert Series. The premiere took place in Montgomery, Alabama, on September 10, 1989, with the composer performing the violin part.

The music of Dinos Constantinides has been performed throughout the world. He is the recipient of many grants, commissions and awards, including first prize in the Brooklyn College International Chamber Opera Competition, and the First Midwest Chamber Opera Conference. He also received the American New Music Consortium Distinguished Service Award, the Glen Award of l'Ensemble of New York, several Meet the Composer grants, numerous ASCAP Standard Awards, and he was honored with a Distinguished Teacher White House Commission on Presidential Scholars.
