TALE FOR TWO CLARINETS AND PIANO

Duration: circa 9:00

Tale (1995) for two clarinets and piano is written in three uninterrupted movements. The entire composition is based on thematic material stated at the beginning of the piece by the first clarinet. The interval of a third pervades the first movement. The second movement is a free cadenza that leads to a frenzied dance-like finale. A jazzy tune based on syncopation brings the composition to a close. Tale is dedicated to Patricia Martin and Debra Andrus.

The music of Dinos Constantinides has been performed throughout the world. He is the recipient of many grants, commissions and awards, including first prize in the Brooklyn College International Chamber Opera Competition, the First Midwest Chamber Opera Conference, and the Delius Composition Contest. He also received the American New Music Consortium Distinguished Service Award, the Glen Award of l'Ensemble of New York, several Meet the Composer grants, numerous ASCAP Standard Awards, and he was honored with a Distinguished Teacher White House Commission on Presidential Scholars.
